Mira explains that we don't have past lives we actually have parallel lives, as time is actually linear. While this may not be an "easy" read, it is far more rewarding as you are forced to truly digest and contemplate each of Mira's chapters. I took it everywhere with me; I wrote notes, and tried the exercises.

Beyond past lives : what parallel realities can teach us ...

Time is an illusion. All lifetimes are simultaneous -- past, present, future, parallel, overlapping. All of them are happening at once. The most correct way would be to refer to all lifetimes as concurrent lives experienced in varying time/space continua. That is rather bulky, so you call them past, present, future, parallel, or overlapping.
