Steamvac
is powered by a 12 amp motor and is capable of cleaning both carpet and hard surfaces - carpet, hardwood, tile, upholstery (thus the terminology "All-Terrain" in the name). It has a 13 inch wide removable cleaning nozzle and is capable of generating equivalent suction across the entire width of the nozzle.

We liked the Hoover All-Terrain F7452900

SteamVac for cleaning carpeting but not as much for hard floors.

The best reason to have a SteamVac is for the spills and stains that happen in the future. They clean up spills right away and leave the carpet probably cleaner than it was before.
