The Little Book of Trading by Coval, Michael W. (ebook)

I went into this book without reading reviews, and the negative reviews are pretty accurate. The little pieces of actionable information can be derived from reading the positive reviews. This book is a collection of short stories about traders who developed their own trend following systems and became multi-millionaires.

Feedback in: Hi Michael, I have recently read your TurtleTrader book, The Little Book of Trading and am now on to Trend Following which I am thoroughly enjoying. I have been doing some trend trading to moderate success but gradually becoming more profitable as I iron out my mistakes, however, I struggle a little with scanning the markets for the correct set ups as I seem to miss a lot of them.
