Walter Bradford Cannon (October 19, 1871 – October 1, 1945) was an American physiologist, professor and chairman of the Department of Physiology at Harvard Medical School. He coined the term "fight or flight response", and he expanded on Claude Bernard's concept of homeostasis. He popularized his theories in his book The Wisdom of the Body, first published in 1932.

Walter Bradford Cannon - Wikipedia

In essence Wisdom of the Body is directed to someone becoming themselves. Because of this it is compatible with Jungian Integration or the Perennial Philosophy. While the system of Wisdom of the Body hypothesizes a pre-existing individual self it is also compatible with Buddhist approaches which theorize a constructed self.
