following Jesus. When they seized him, he fled naked, leaving his garment behind” (Mark 14:51-52). We find this story in Mark’s Gospel right after the account of Jesus’s arrest, and it’s one of the least understood narratives in the entire New Testament.

Who Was That Young Man? - DTS Voice

The identity of the man is unknown, but since the Gospel of Mark is the only gospel that mentions the incident, many Bible scholars speculate that the young man was John Mark himself, the author of the Gospel of Mark. It is impossible to know for sure who the young man was, since the Bible does not specifically identify him.
